

CO-CURRICULAR COMMITTEE

The Institute strongly believes in all round development of students. In order to facilitate this, there are a number of student committees and clubs at the institute. These entities are comprised of and run by students themselves. Faculty guides are assigned to each club and committee with an objective to channelize and explore the hidden potential among the students. The activities carried out by these groups help the students in getting an experience of working in teams, organizing various types of events, and developing insight into multiple functions of management. The Institute actively supports sports, cultural, literary and other recreational activities.

Objectives:

- ❖ To enhancing communication skills among students.
- ❖ To forge the team spirit of the student.
- ❖ To provide all-rounded inter-college activities for students.
- ❖ To increase the transparency of the student and make it a more mature, independent and representative student community.
- ❖ To organize a greater variety of activities in helping students achieve whole person development.
- ❖ To provide on the job leadership training programs.

Procedure:

- ❖ Co-curricular activities are the true and practical experiences received by students. To a greater extent, theoretical knowledge gets strengthened when a relevant co-curricular activity is organized related to the content taught in the classroom. Intellectual aspects of personality are solely accomplished by the Classroom, while aesthetic development, character building, spiritual growth, physical growth, moral values, creativity, etc are supported by co-curricular activities. Frankness and clarity in language and personality is supported by these activities. It helps to develop co-ordination, adjustment, speech fluency, extempore expressions, etc. among students.

Responsibilities:

- ❖ The faculty must be a good planner so that the different activities could be carried out systematically throughout the year.
- ❖ It should be the duty of the faculty to give more and more opportunities for the student's while performing co-curricular activities.
- ❖ We should act as an Innovator by introducing some innovative programs.
- ❖ The faculty must be a good organizer so that the students experienced a maximum of it.
- ❖ The student should too act like director, recorder, evaluator, manager, decision-maker, advisor, motivator, communicator, coordinator, so that the student could gain a maximum of finer aspects of Co-curricular activities.
