

STUDENT FOREIGN EXCHANGE PROGRAM COMMITTEE

Introduction:

Student exchange offers broad based benefits and outcomes for students keen to embark on this international adventure. Most of these are intertwined and come together to constitute the overarching exchange experience.

Objectives:

- ❖ To promote International learning and knowledge propels students towards acceptance and understanding of an array of different cultural and community perspectives.
- ❖ To bring Language acquisition is achieved through practical immersion.
- ❖ To bring Awareness and adoption of alternative, multi-faceted approaches to learning.
- ❖ Help in developing Analytical and problem solving skills.
- ❖ To bring enhanced interest in global issues as well as a broader general knowledge.

Procedure:

- ❖ Help students for Self-development and awareness leading to enhanced self-confidence and self-esteem. This is often the most noticeable change in returned exchange students.
- ❖ Maturity and social poise, fuelled by the necessity to confront challenges outside a familiar support network and comfort zone.
- ❖ Integration into another family as well as the development of life-long friendships, fostering an appreciation of home and family.
- ❖ A tremendous sense of accomplishment upon completion encourages students to develop independent opinions, make informed decisions and strive to attain fresh goals.
- ❖ Some programs require a preliminary application form with fees, and then schedule interviews and a longer application form. Other programs request a full application from the beginning and then schedule interviews.
- ❖ High school scholarship programs often require a set GPA of around 2.5 or higher. Programs select the candidates most likely to complete the program and serve as the best ambassadors to the foreign nation.
- ❖ Students in some programs, such as Rotary, are expected to go to any location where the organization places them, and students are encouraged not to have strict expectations of their host country. Students are allowed to choose a country, but may live at any spot within that country.

Responsibilities:

- ❖ The committee members should ensure that Foreign exchange programs provide students with an opportunity to study in a different country and environment experiencing the history and culture of another country, as well as meeting new friends to enrich their personal development.
- ❖ Faculty members of our Institute should guide their respective mentees in availing foreign exchange programs providing a chance to develop their work experience by seeing how the profession they are studying is practiced in another country.
